MICHIGAN
ASSOCIATION ON HIGHER EDUCATION AND DISABILITY

Serving professionals who work with people with disabilities since 1987.

WHAT IS MI-AHEAD?

MI-AHEAD was founded in 1987 as a state organization for professionals working with students and staff with disabilities in higher education. This not-for-profit organization is committed to providing professional development for service providers in order to enhance opportunities and assure full inclusion in all areas of higher education.

WHAT DOES MI-AHEAD DO?

- ★ Annual statewide conference on legal and other professional issues to enhance professional development.
- ★ Monthly board meetings open to all members with discussions of issues and sharing of ideas with minutes of board meetings e-mailed to members.
- ★ MIAHEAD Website available at: <http://www.mi-ahead.org>
- ★ Sponsorship of workshops and satellite conferences.
- ★ Venue for networking among members.
- ★ Source for list and labels of professionals.
- ★ Consultation and technical assistance on ADA, Section 504 of the Rehab Act, IDEA, WIA, and on specific disability issues.
- ★ Presentations on post-secondary education and disability issues.

Who would benefit from MI-AHEAD Membership?

Any individual who is working or has worked, or has an interest in working with people with disabilities within higher education to enhance their opportunities (disability service providers, ADA coordinators, Section 504 compliance officers, human resource staff, counselors, administrators, high school special education teachers, psychologists, social workers, orientation and mobility specialists, attorneys).
